Mr. J. E. Curry
Chief of Police

Subject: Assignment on
November 22, 1963

Sir:

On November 22, 1963 at approximately 12:45 P.M., I heard from a Reserve Officer that the President had been shot. I checked with the dispatcher's office immediately and was informed that additional officers were needed at the Texas School Book Depository building.

Lieutenant Erich Kaminski and I arrived at the Texas School Book Depository building shortly after being informed of the need for additional officers. I was instructed by Chief Lumpkin, upon arrival, to proceed to the sixth floor. There I assisted in searching for additional evidence on this floor.

Later, Chief Lumpkin put me in charge of a search team and instructed me to start on the roof and work down to the basement making a thorough and complete search of all floors. When this assignment was completed, I was relieved by Chief Lumpkin and told to report to my office.

I received no further instructions and ended my tour of duty at the regular time.

Respectfully submitted,

W. F. DYSON, Lieutenant
Vice Section
Special Service Bureau
